
2020 Sparkler Juniors Lodging Policy

This is a 100% Stay to Play event and all teams participating must book within the Triple Crown primary block, within the overflow block (if available), pay the lodging surcharge (if made available) or receive a local team waiver.

Teams are NOT permitted to book rooms until they have entered and made full payment into the event. At that time a unique team lodging code will be provided which must be used to book all rooms within the primary block. All teams booking in the primary block must call the property directly and speak with the listed representative. Reservations made in any other fashion- points, front desk, corporate website, third parties; will not be recognized as in compliance.

Teams booking in the overflow block (if available) must book using the link provided. DO NOT CALL the property. Reservations made in any other fashion will not be recognized as in compliance.

Local Teams

Colorado teams within a 100-mile drive radius will be granted a WAIVER and are not required to book lodging for this event.

Alternative Lodging Requests/ BUYOUT

A lodging buyout may be made available as blocks approach capacity and we open the overflow block. Teams seeking alternative lodging at that time may contact the tournament lodging director; mikayla@triplecrownsports.com or 970-672-0509 for details.

Policies

To be bracketed into the 2020 Sparkler Juniors, your team must meet one of the following requirements:

- Stay with a Triple Crown Sports lodging partner inside of the primary (or overflow if available) block (minimum team requirement is 6 hotel rooms for 5 nights) and report all reservations including name, confirmation and stay dates on the Triple Crown website.
- Receive a lodging waiver where applicable.
- Pay the lodging surcharge should one be made available as the event approaches booking capacity.
